

Themes of the annual global Internet conferences for students 2000 - 2016

- 5.6.2000 „Agenda 21 NOW!“
- 22.3.2001 Water
- 25.4.2002 Floods and Deserts
- 3.4.2003 Borders and Diversity (: Can we live together sustainably? :)
- 26.4.2004 Focus on Food – Shape (y)our Future NOW!
- 10.2.2005 Looking at Lifestyle 21 ... – sustainable Consumption and Recycling?
- 27.4.2006 Democracy – Participate in the Process ...
- 9.5.2007 One World, One Globe – Globalisation ... near you?
- 8.5.2008 Transport and Communication – Developing the 21st Century
- 23.4.2009 Education is Future – What is the Future of Education?
- 28./29.4.2010 Sustainable Global Warming! (Really?)
- 14.4.2011 Human Diversity – Challenges and Chances
- 22.3.2012 Revolution – Evolution – Change: Transitions in the 21st Century's Societies
- 18.4.2013 Humanity depicts Poverty, Poverty depicts Humanity?
A Question of Cause and a Quest for Solutions
- 10.4.2014 Prejudices against the World – The World against Prejudices
- 19.3.2015 Road to 2050 – what the World should be like, what the World could be like ...
- 17./18.2.2016 Political and demographic Change in the early 21st Century

The themes have been worked out and decided on by the Agenda 21 NOW! team, in close cooperation with the federal coordination of the UNESCO ASPnet Germany. The Agenda 21 NOW! team consists of current students, former students (with many of them currently being university students) and a few teachers from the following schools:

Kurt-Tucholsky-School Flensburg, Germany

Humboldt Gymnasium Trier, Germany

Comprehensive School Kandel, Germany

Anna-Schmidt-School, Frankfurt am Main, Germany